

OUR MISSION:

Drafted in 1990 to guide the organization, the statement remains a constant for all decisions and activities:

RGF exists to provide a unified voice for a livable and prosperous future for Clark County.

OUR GOALS:

- To advocate sensible, balanced growth through responsible planning;
- To draw upon the diversity, experience and wealth of knowledge within the community to resolve issues and find new solutions;
- To educate contributors, decision makers and the community-at-large on issues relating to growth in Clark County;
- To advise decision makers as they make policy determinations.

Are you ready to join the only organization solely devoted to advocating the business perspective in the complex and trying land use and development environment in SW Washington? You can't afford anything else.
